INTERNATIONAL FIGURE SKATING COMPETITION

This Sunday marks the conclusion of the 5th edition of the Merano Ice Trophy – Memorial Martina Barricelli, the prestigious international figure skating competition dedicated to the memory of coach Martina Barricelli, who passed away in 2021.

Over four days, more than 160 athletes from 21 countries competed on the ice at the Meranarena, delivering technical and artistic performances in the singles categories and – for the first time – also in pair skating disciplines.

Among the participants were many talents recognized at European and world level. Eight athletes from ASM Merano, including three members of the Italian national teams, proudly represented Italy in front of an enthusiastic audience.

Venue: Meranarena Ice Rink, Via Piave 46, 39012 Merano

Time: from 9:30 a.m. to approximately 3:00 p.m.

Free entry, no registration required
